AUTHORIZE NEW X-RAY MACHINES FOR HOSPITAL

Dr. E. H. Markley, president of the board of directors of the Warner hospital, was authorized by the board Friday evening to collaborate with the medical staff in expanding the x-ray department to meet present needs through the purchase of new x-ray apparatus.

The members of the board were told at their meeting in the Nurses' home that the new equipment, when purchased, will be used for diagnostic purposes while the present equipment will be retained for therapy use.

Latest Equipment

Dr. Walter S. Mountain, president of the staff; Dr. J. L. Boyer, chief of the x-ray department, and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, surgeon, appeared before the board to outline the potential advantages accruing to the hospital by expanding the x-ray department now. The proposed equipment is of the latest possible type, compact, easily movable and will permit much easier handling in diagnostic cases. The present equipment is less easy to handle under certain circumstances, and while it can be used for any purposes, is best suited for therapy, the board was told. The purchase of new equipment will round out the needed x-ray equipment owned by the hospital.

The cost of the new x-ray machines will be between $7,000 and $8,000, it was estimated at the meeting. Gifts from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Musselman and the Gettysburg Elks toward the purchase have provided a nucleus for the required fund, the board was told.

Lend Your Dollars To U.S.

The 13 billion Second War Loan is the responsibility of every one of us.

As Americans, we must lend our government every dollar we can during these next few weeks. No matter how much or how little our pay checks are, each of us must do his part.

The money is urgently needed to back up our armed forces now on the offensive with the weapons they must have to win and win quickly.

We are asked to give up our luxuries and even our comforts to match in a small way the sacrifices our men in the armed forces are making on the fighting fronts.

Remember: They give their lives—we are only asked to lend our money.

Only you know how much you can lend. Don't wait for someone to come around and ask you to do your part.

Do it today. Do it gladly. Do it to the utmost of your capacity.

Do it knowing that upon how much you do depends to a large extent how quickly we win this war.

A letter addressed to Captain John R. Coshey, commanding, and read by Lieut. F. H. Wilcox at the opening of the play stated that the books were presented "in appreciation of the loyal service the officers and men of the Detachment were rendering their country in this hour of emergency and as a memento of their early training days in this historic community."

More than 800 Gettysburg residents are agreed that what the air cadets do in their spare time is as interesting and important as what they do officially for the Army Air Corps.

The home folks came to that conclusion Friday night after giggling, guffawing, "ohing" and "ahing" for nearly three hours at "An Air Cadet Candidate's Dream," presented by the members of the 55th College Training Detachment "in appreciation for the courtesies and welcome accorded them by Gettysburgians."

The variety show, which rivaled "Hellzapoppin'" and "This Is the Army," Broadway hits, was presented in Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium. It will be repeated tonight for the faculty and students of the college.

The jam-packed audience will agree with the fact that it was "in the gym." Nearly as much took place among the audience as on the stage.

"Dream" Play

The theme of the play was based on the dream of William Woods, one of the candidates.

Edwin Janiszewski, who hails from Cadahy, Wisconsin, stopped the show with his presentation of accordion numbers in a fashion that had won him considerable fame with various orchestras in the Chicago area before he became a member of the Army Air Corps.

Burton Terry, who has played with a number of "name" orchestras in Chicago, displayed his ability as an orchestra conductor Friday night, while leading his 15-piece orchestra, made up of aircrew members. The announcement of each number brought sighs of joy from members of the audience.

Witness Demonstration

The outfit held its fourth drill Friday night at the armory when the group was divided into nine squads, three squads to each platoon.

Sergeant Raymond Strohm, of the Gettysburg ROTC staff, demonstrated the setting up and tearing down of a Browning automatic rifle. The demonstration was one of a series being given to the members to familiarize them in all types of weapons used by the infantry.

Next Friday the group will be given a demonstration on handling a machine gun. Last Friday a Garand rifle was demonstrated.

To Close Roster

Squad and platoon drills were also held Friday night.

Captain Brame said that the roster of the company will be closed after next Friday night. No enlistments will be allowed after that time until further specified dates.

C. M. WOLF SELLS TWO BUFFALOS

Once the great herds of bison roamed the western prairies but in these rationed days—it's Gettysburg that serves Baltimore its buffalo meat.

Stockyard attendants in Baltimore Thursday were startled when Robert McNair, of Emmitsburg drove into the yards there with two buffalos, the first, it is believed, ever to be sold at Baltimore.

A packing firm bought the two animals for consumption, government permitting, by the elite of the city in one of its better restaurants.

The buffalos were from the farm of C. M. Wolf, along the Harrisburg road, where Mr. Wolf still has two buffalos grazing. Five buffalos have been purchased so far by Mr. Wolf, two of them from circuses that folded with the war, one from the Allentown stockyards and the other two, a pair of calves, from the Hershey zoo.

Only the two from Hershey remain, growing into vigorous buffalo-hood on the pastures at the Wolf farm. The first buffalo, purchased from a circus was sold when it became too wild to remain at the farm. Of the pair sold Thursday, one had also become a little wild through confinement to only a few acres. Each of them weighed 850 pounds.

FFA TO ASSIST IN GARDEN AND SCRAP EFFORTS

Extensive participation by the Future Farmers of America clubs of the county in the salvage and Victory Garden campaigns was planned Friday evening at a meeting of the county agricultural education teachers at Biglerville.

Each club will be instructed to follow last spring's procedure when the organization for the salvage drive was turned over to the individual student groups. The individual units will also plan their part in the Victory Garden program.

The possibility of setting up a Rural War Production training course for women in gardening and canning was discussed. The new program will call for both the agricultural education and home economics teachers in the various high schools where such a course is instituted to combine their talents in a 20-week course.

Pioneering Course

During the first part of the course the agricultural education teacher will be the principal instructor, giving information on methods of gardening while the home economics teachers will tell how to prepare early foods. After the middle of the course the stress will be on canning taught by the home economics teachers with the agricultural teachers explaining how to care for the garden after planting.

The course, very few of which have been set up in the state as yet, will include the establishment of home canning centers in farm sections where small groups will meet with the home economics teacher for demonstrations in canning.

Farm Women Required

There is a possibility that several such courses, which are designed for out of school persons, will be held this spring, it was announced.

The classes must include ten farm women and may include any number of non-farm women after the first ten have been selected from farm population.

Leslie V. Stock, principal of the Biglerville schools was a special guest of the ag. teachers at the meeting.

Three groups of selections will be presented and will be preceded by a 20-minute organ recital by John E. Sanderson. A silver offering will be received.

Charles Dietz and Cedric Tilberg will sing the solo parts in two of the groups. Between the second and third groups of numbers, Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, seminary president, will speak.

The program follows:

Times' Carriers To Receive Certificates Of Service And Awards For War Stamp Sales

The Gettysburg Times newsboys and girls in selling 1,807,585 ten cent war stamps or their equivalent in bonds have sold more stamps than any other newspaper in the state, in proportion to the population area covered.

But the youngsters claim "their record is 'only the beginning.' They plan to double, if possible, their customary sales during the Second War Loan drive which opens Monday, April 12. Adams county's goal is $2,318,000 of the $13,000,000, 000 drive and 'Times' carriers are determined to do their full share, and better.

GAIN 40 MILES IN 24 HOURS TO TAKE MAHARES

By EDWARD KENNEDY

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, April 10 (AP)—The British Eighth army occupied Sfax, Marshal Erwin Rommel's key base and supply port in Central Tunisia, at 8:15 a. m. today after routing enemy opposition.

Hurling themselves forward with crushing speed, the veterans of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery gained about 40 miles in 24 hours, occupying Mahares, 50 miles north of Gabes, and continuing on today to Sfax, where they were about 150 miles south of Tunis.

At the same time British, Americans and French on Rommel's flank launched successful new attacks in the central and northern sectors.

Threaten Nazi Rear

Today's communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said the British First army again had advanced, and had marked up a 10-mile gain in the last four days in the Medjez-El-Bab area.

Americans of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., and French combined to capture high ground north and south of Fondouk, occupying Piehon, north of Fondouk, and cleaning out that area 80 miles northwest of Sfax, where a new threat to Rommel's rear appeared to be shaping up.

Take More Prisoners

Prisoners taken since the break through the Mareth Line now totaled well above 20,000 it was reported.

A bulletin from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said the Allies launched a new drive Thursday against Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's "escape corridor" from the Fondouk sector, 80 miles northwest of Sfax.

The communique said American and French troops, thrusting toward Kairouan and the sea, seized high ground on the north and south of Fondouk, capturing more than 500 prisoners.

In the north, the British 1st army rolled up a 10-mile advance and captured 1,900 prisoners in the last four days, the communique added.

Headlong Flight

The capture of Sfax, 22 miles north of Mahares and 70 airline miles south of Sousse, marked a retreat of more than 100 miles by Rommel's broken columns from the Mareth Line in the last 12 days.

Dispatches said the Axis chieftain was in headlong flight up the Tunisian coast on the last 100 miles to a rim of mountain defenses above Sousse.

Simultaneously, a CBS broadcast from North Africa quoted Gen. Montgomery as telling his troops:

"Let us get on to the third attack. Let us make the enemy face and endure a first-class Dunkerque."

Yanks Pound Jap Posts In New Guinea

(By The Associated Press)

Allied warplanes poured 63,000 rounds of cannon and machine-gun fire into Japanese positions in northern New Guinea and blasted nine enemy bases in the islands above Australia. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced today.

The heaviest assault fell upon the Madang area, along the Japanese supply route to their base at Salamau and Lae, and dispatches said the raiders left big fires raging and that a single fighter group made 27 strafing passes over the region.

Other targets included Finschhafen, Mubo, Kavieng, Timika, Dobo and Saumlaki—all points of increasing Japanese activity as the enemy tightened his grip on the South seas area.

On the Burma front, British headquarters announced that there was "nothing to report" in fighting north of the Mayu peninsula, where the Japanese have been driving toward the Burma-India frontier.

PLANTS, SHIPS, RAILS BOMBED; 21 PLANES LOST

London, April 10 (AP)—Duisburg and other industrial points in Germany's Ruhr valley were the targets for Royal Air Force explosive and incendiary bombs as the RAF continued its day-and-night hammering in another raid last night, an Air Ministry communique announced today.

Eight bombers failed to return from the raid, the third night sortie this month against Germany, the Air Ministry said.

Enemy shipping off the Norwegian coast also was attacked earlier in the night by coastal command aircraft, which torpedoned one tanker. Two coastal command planes are missing, it was announced.

The RAF's new round-the-clock bombing of the continent was resumed Thursday night with a heavy raid on the Ruhr area, but the objectives that night were not announced.

21 Planes Lost

In daylight yesterday RAF Spitfire planes machinegunned supply trains in northern France, and at dusk swift mosquito bombers attacked industrial objects near Cologne.

Four enemy fighters also were shot down over the Dover strait.

A number of casualties and some damage were caused by four German planes which bombed and machine-gunned a town on England's southeast coast at dusk yesterday, it was announced.

Last night's was the third raid on Germany this month and a Berlin broadcast, which also omitted identification of the targets, indicated that the RAF again was following its newest strategy of hitting several areas at the same time.

The British acknowledged the loss of 21 bombers in Thursday night's raid, accomplished in heavy weather.

Draws Caricatures

John Carmody, former art staff member of the Chicago Sun drew a number of caricatures including those of Captains John R. Coshey and George H. Hill to the amusement of the audience and the soldiers on the stage—not to mention the captains, who enjoyed it just as much.

Richard Sorensen who was "hurling" to put out a fire in the mess hall, with a cup of water, was seen quite often, crossing and recrossing the stage at a very slow walk before the gag ended near the end of the show.

David Davis led the choir in several numbers.

Much of the credit for the play was given by the members of the cast to John Ondrasek, from Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, the director. R. W. Olsen handled lights; John Doswell, backstage; Jerome Ivie, theater; R. P. Pederson, the rifle division and Lansing L. Jorammon the audience gags. E. W. Sherman wrote the script while Kenneth Sheridan handled props and publicity.

Special Guests

The play was written, directed and rehearsed in the spare time of the aircrew students, all of whom had to continue their full time studies while preparing the performance. It was given, according to the master of ceremonies, "to pay back to Gettysburg in entertainment, the many fine things the students have received from the people of the town."

Members of the town council and their wives were among the special guests of the students at the play.

All of the members of the cast ably performed their parts from the "stars" to those playing the smallest parts, audience members agreed after the play.

After deliberating more than five hours a Dauphin county Common Pleas court jury returned a sealed verdict Friday evening in the case of the Keystone Trust company, administrator of the estate of James Sheddick, late of Harrisburg, against the Atlantic States Motor Lines, a North Carolina corporation with offices in Harrisburg. The verdict was to be opened in court today.

The suit was a result of a collision at the York Springs intersection on the night of December 26, 1941, between a big van of the motor truck line and a car occupied by Sheddick and operated by Judge Malone Lester, also fatally injured in the crash. Both men were negroes. Two other negroes in the car were badly hurt.

MARINE HERO CHEERED TODAY

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—Philadelphia parade by the thousands today before the dimmed eyes of Sgt. Albert S. Schmid.

The cheers, the spoken tribute of military and civilian leaders, the feel of a medal pressed into his hands—all these have been planned to create a picture he needs no eyes to see.

He lost the sight of one eye and was blinded partially in the other last August on Guadalcanal. It was Schmid with one machine gun against the Japanese. They wounded him cruelly, but he killed 200 of them.

It isn't sympathy he gets today but the gratitude of his native city—with a $1,000 award from the Philadelphia Inquirer as a tangible expression.

His bride of a week—"My Babe" he called her—settled herself to hear his Guadalcanal commander, Brig. Gen. Clifton B. Bates, tell what happened that August night.

Then the Marine hymn, and Sgt. Schmid, assured of all that doctors can do to restore his world of sight, looks into the future with eager, hopeful eyes.

NEGRO ON TRIAL IN TRAIN DEATH

Albany, Ore., April 10 (AP)—Marine Private Harold Wilson was called to the witness stand again today in the trial of Robert E. Lee Folkes, young negro dining car cook charged with murdering Mrs. Martha Virginia James, 21, daughter of a prominent Norfolk, Va., family in berth lower 13 on a speeding train Jan. 23.

Wilson, who was in berth upper 13 of the same sleeping car, testified yesterday he was awakened by a scream and looked out to see a man with short, dark hair climb out of lower 13, run toward the rear of the car and disappear in the early morning darkness.

A second later, Mrs. James, traveling alone, stepped out of the berth and collapsed on the floor, her throat cut, Wilson declared.

"Late To Work"

The Marine said he searched the rear of the train, finding no one until his return to the dining car adjoining sleeping car. D.

There, he said, he saw Folkes at work preparing breakfast.

"There were beads of perspiration on his forehead. Perspiration was running down his face," Wilson told District Attorney Harlow Weinrick and the jury.

"I didn't notice any fire in the stove. It was cool in the kitchen," he declared, adding that Folkes admitted he was slightly late to work.

Pullman Conductor W. H. Banks testified earlier that he had checked all doors after the slaying and determined that the killer could not have escaped.

REDS KILL 1,200 AND STOP NAZIS

BY EDDIE GILMORE

Moscow, April 10 (AP)—Massing new forces, the Germans have tried again to smash the Red Army line south of Balakleya but have lost more than 1,200 dead and a number of tanks in the battle for bridgeheads along the Donets River.

In their newest thrust, the Nazi's sought to drive through the Russian line to reach an unidentified settlement but they were forced back to their original positions.

The army newspaper Red Star said that battles are fierce in this area 27 miles northwest of Izyum but there is no indication that the assaults are on the gigantic scale which the Russians turned back on the northern Donets line.

Front dispatches said the Germans were using fresh forces south of Balakleya.

The noon communique did not mention fighting in the sector south of Izyum but the Red Army presumably still holds its original bridgeheads all along the river.

There still were no large scale fights on the western front but in the sector south of Bely the Russians advancing toward Smolensk captured a height of vital importance as more activity was noted.

From the Red Fleet came a report that Stormovik bombers sank a large German transport ship crowded with troops at an unidentified place on the Black Sea coast.

FARM LEADERS SKEPTICAL ON FDR "FREEZE"

By JACK BELL

Washington, April 10 (AP)—Keeping their powder dry congressional farm leaders pledged their support today to President Roosevelt's effort to hold the line against inflation with a virtual freeze of prices, wages and salaries at their existing levels.

But from farm organization leaders came outspoken criticism of the edict, with one terming it "impossible of execution."

Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) told reporters that he intended to support the President's latest executive order in good faith "so long as everybody is treated alike." He said he had no intention at this time of moving to bring back before the Senate his vetoed farm prices bill.

"False Assumption"

From leaders of four major national farm organizations came open expressions of displeasure at the President's order.

Albert S. Goss, National Grange master, said "the President's plan is based on the false assumption that we can maintain our existing standards of living in the face of enormous losses caused by war," and Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau federation said he was "dumbfounded" by the order. He asserted that farm prices are not responsible for inflation, and added that "it looks like the President is hitting at the farmer."

Ace Rookie Prospect Of Brooklyn Dodgers Won't Get Chance Of Making Good

GUNSHOT WOUND KEEPS PECK OUT PRESENT LINEUP

By JUDSON BAILEY

New York, April 10 (AP)—One of the best major league prospects ever to get up to the big show without a chance of staying is Harold Arthur Peck of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Peck was one of the stars of the Milwaukee Brewers last season and led the American association in total hits. He was such a prize that even though he shot two toes off his left foot in a hunting accident last September, Larry MacPhail bought him for a fancy price.

Peck's problem now is this—his foot has not mended sufficiently for him to earn an outfield berth with the Dodgers and when it does get well he must report for induction. This seems like a hopeless circle for the immediate baseball ambitions of the 26-year-old swatter from Genesee Depot, Wis.

Special Shoe

"I still feel quite a bit of pain," he said today, "but I wear a special shoe with sponge rubber in the toe and I do a little running every day. I don't know how long it will take to heal, but I expect to play baseball somewhere here today."

"I was classified 1A last fall before the draft board knew about my foot. When they examined me they didn't give me any new classification, they just told me and my doctor to report back as soon as the foot was well. I figure that I will be able to get around on it for a couple of hours a day in a ball game before I will be in shape for the Army. I have to wear a special dress shoe, too, and I wouldn't be able to do much marching for some time."

Peck is married and the father of a nine-months-old daughter. He was classified 3A last September 3 when, with four games of the association schedule remaining, he took advantage of an off day to go hunting near his home—and sent a shotgun blast into his foot.

SPORT SHORTS

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—Football Star Joe Papiano of Temple was called for pitching duty—his mound debut—as Temple opened its home baseball season against Lehigh today.

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—Bob Parrott, iron man pitcher of the West Chester Teachers', got the nod to start his third game in a week when the Teachers' opened Penn's home baseball season at River Field today.

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—It took some luck, but Bill Groom rolled a perfect game in the Stenton Major Bowling league. His final hit left a 9-10 split. But the No. 2 pin bounced from the gutter and topped No. 9, which brought down the 10.

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—Bill Cozen of Haverford High pitched a no-hit game yesterday as the Fords whipped Germantown academy, 4-0.

Wilmington, Del., April 10 (AP)—Elmer Valo, Philadelphia Athletics outfielder, has been ordered by his draft board to report for a physical examination Monday. Valo was married before Pearl Harbor. He has no children.

War Plants Will Sponsor Softball

Chicago, April 10 (AP)—The interest of industrialists in the promotion of softball was one of the main issues considered by representatives attending the 10th annual meeting of the Amateur Softball Association of America, which opened today.

The association was expected to name industrialists in each state and metropolitan area to work with the A.S.A. commissioner in promoting softball in industry and especially in plants devoted to war work.

Bummy Davis Will Meet Notch Tonight

Pittsburgh, April 10 (AP)—Al (Bummy) Davis, New York welterweight, swaps punches with Carmen Notch, of Pittsburgh, in the headline attraction of a fight show tonight at the Gardens.

Both have been beaten by Fritz Zivic and eager for a rematching with the former welter king.

In another bout, Alfred (Big Boy) Brown, Detroit, meets Buddy Walker, Columbus (O) heavyweight.

Three six-rounders make up the preliminaries, with Jackie Armitage, New Kensington, meeting Bobby Simmons, Carnegie; Angel Avilez, Mexican featherweight, vs. Sammy Parotta, Pittsburgh, and Bebe Wright, Pittsburgh, vs. Teddy Phillips, of Pittsburgh.

Charley Robinson Decisions Spears

Philadelphia, April 10 (AP)—Carrying the battle to his opponent in the last five rounds, Charles Robinson, 180, Philadelphia outpointed Wally Sears, 184, Minersville, Pa., for the second time in three weeks in an uneventful windup match at the Cambria last night.

Sears took the lead in the opening rounds but was on the defensive later. He caused Robinson to miss repeatedly, yet landed few blows.

In scheduled six-round bouts, Frank Lowry, 157½, dethroned Marine Brunt, 151½; Jim Quigley, 163, knocked out Lou Grimm, 160 in the third; Jim Grinnage, 180, kayoed Leo Wiggins, 180, in the first; Phil Sessa, 134, kayoed Red Hall, 130, also in the first, and Billy Baines, 128, dethroned Willie Smith, 130. Smith is from Camden, New Jersey. The others are Philadelphians.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 10 (AP)—The other day, Al Del Greco, the Hackensack, N. J., sports scribe, came up with the suggestion that gold clubs suffering from shortage of professionals might do worse than to hire some of the better feminine golfers to take their places. . . . There's no kidding about that shortage, either though eventually the supply of golf courses may run short, too. A lot of the men who served their apprenticeship learning to make golf clubs have found that handling tools in war plants is right down their alley. . . . So, along with Rosie the riveter and Susie the section hand, why not Pauline the golf pro?

WELL, WHY NOT?

About a half dozen top-flight women golfers have turned pro—Helen Hicks, Patty Berg and Betty Hicks Newell for example—and Joe Dey, the U. S. Golf association secretary, figures that any gal who can qualify for the women's championship is a good enough golfer for the job. . . . "They're really good," he says. "And women seem to take more lessons and show the effects of instruction more than the men." . . . On the negative side, there's the question of whether they could teach golf—especially to men, who play a harder-socking game than most gals—whether they'd want to give up their amateur status for temporary jobs, and what would the crabby quartet think about it, anyway. . . . As Dey remarks, "It's a question of who you want to take instruction from your wife?" . . . Brother, you may not want to, but you do."

FORECAST GOOD TROUT SEASON

Harrisburg, April 10 (AP)—C. A. French, state fish commissioner, predicts the most favorable fishing conditions in years for some 200,000 anglers when Pennsylvania's trout season opens next Thursday at 5 a. m.

An abundance of rain and snow during the fall and winter along with a large number of trout left over from last season have made the prospects almost perfect, French said yesterday.

"The fish will be there. It's up to the people to catch them," he added and suggested first-day anglers use such favorable baits as bucktails, streamer flies, artificial nymphs and wet flies as well as the garden hackle—a long narrow feather—and the common worm. He also advised use of extra lead weights on lines because of higher water in the streams.

French said at least 700,000 legal-sized trout—six inches or more in length—will be placed in state streams before the season opens, adding the program has been delayed somewhat by a lack of trucks to haul the trout from state hatcheries.

The limit for a day's catch is 10 trout of such species as brook, brown and rainbow.

Pep Wins Before Large Boston Crowd

Boston, April 10 (AP)—Thanks to Willie Pep, the fast-punching Hartford, Connecticut featherweight who owns the New York version of that division's title, Boston today appeared to have rehabilitated itself as a major boxing center.

With pep as the magnet, a crowd of 15,949, the largest that has seen an indoor boxing show here since 1931, paid $39,030 at the Boston Garden last night to see him win a split decision over Sol Bartolo, a super-aggressive Boston youngster, in a 10-round overweight bout. Both weighed 127½.

(By The Associated Press)
Muncie, Ind., April 10—Pittsburgh and Detroit took the field today for the first of their nine-game exhibition series which winds up at Detroit on April 19.

Manager Frankie Frisch of the Pirates nominated Rip Sewell and Lloyd Dietz for today's encounter while Steve O'Neill of the Tigers, picked rookie Frank Overmire and Johnny Gorsica.

Sunday's contest will be played at Evansville and Muncie fans of the Pirates are transporting the players there in private automobiles.

Philadelphia—With the Philadelphia Americans one up, the Phillies and the A's resume their city series today. Johnny Podgajny will start for the National leaguers with Si Johnson chucking the final chapters. For Connie Mack's nine, it will be Lum Harris and Jess Flores.

Elmer Valo, only remaining member of Mack's 1942 outfield, has been ordered to report to his draft board for an examination today.

WPIAL To Abandon Tennis Due To War

Pittsburgh, April 10 (AP)—Tennis is the first sport the WPIAL has abandoned because of war conditions. Vic Doak, chairman of the net committee, announced today.

Ambridge, Sewickley, McKeesport, and Mt. Lebanon were the only schools signifying their intention of putting teams in competition. Doak said the WPIAL may have entries in the PIAA as District 7 competitors.

See Bright Future For Youthful Diver

Chicago, April 10 (AP)—Little Zoe Ann Olsen of La Porte City, Iowa, is destined to become one of the nation's greatest diving stars. Her mother says so, and gives her about eight more years to do it.

Zoe Ann is only 12 years old, but she already is the National Junior Indoor Lowboard diving champion. Last night she placed third in the one-meter event of the National Senior Women's A.A.U. swimming competition.

"I was happy, but not too surprised by her showing," proudly confessed Mrs. Art Olsen, wife of a high school principal and former Y.W.C.A. swimming instructor at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

"I've had to squeeze my gasoline rationing cards to take her to Waterloo, 33 miles away, and to Cedar Falls, another 44 miles, because we don't have a pool in La Porte City. We make the trips about three times a week, and when our coupons run low we hook rides with friends."

40,478 THROG JAMAICA TRACK

New York, April 10 (AP)—If there were any questions about wartime racing this spring, the attendance at Jamaica the past two days and the entries for today's Paumonok handicap should supply the answers.

Only 22,388 spectators turned out for the first days of the sport in 1942 but the turnstiles were spun 40,478 times Thursday and Friday despite curtailed traveling facilities to the Long Island plant. And the entries for today's handicap were so numerous the officials had to divide the field and run off the event in two sections.

With the metropolitan phase of the sport off to a profitable start, the racing fraternity turned its attention today to the openings at Narragansett and Keeneland's transplanted meeting at Churchill Downs.

Bomber Gunner Has Record Of 25 Trips

London, April 10 (AP)—Sergeant Michael Roskovich, 20, of Fayette City, Pa. the first man in his fortress wing to complete 25 raids over Europe, is looking for new foes to conquer.

Roskovich returned from his "silver anniversary" mission to Antwerp April 5 announcing that he would like to graduate from his work as a bomber gunner, become a pursuit pilot and knock Zeros into the Pacific.

Buddies helped the gunner celebrate by stripping him of his clothes and painting a large "25" on his back. He cycled off the field to report to intelligence officers clad only in underpants.

Roskovich said a high wind and other military considerations had prevented him from carrying out a proposed plan to observe the completion of his 25th raid by parachuting from his fortress over the home base.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roskovich, live in Marion, a suburb of Fayette City.

No Easter Finery For Mrs. Roosevelt

Chicago, April 10 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is buying no Easter finery this year she said Friday.

The subject of shopping and clothes was brought up by reporters who met the United Air Liner she rode from San Francisco to Chicago, en route to Washington. She was asked whether she had done any Easter shopping on the West Coast.

"I'm not getting any new clothes for Easter," she said.

"Do you think other women should follow your example?" someone asked.

"No, I think they should buy clothes if they need them," the First Lady said.

Mrs. Roosevelt was dressed in a black ensemble.

Would Ban Sale Of Live Easter Pets

Harrisburg, April 10 (AP)—A resolution calling for the State Defense Council to request merchants and farmers to discontinue the sale of chicks, ducklings and rabbits as temporary Easter pets has been reported out for floor action in the House.

The resolution was presented by Rep. H. David Sarge (R-Lebanon) and read in part: "The sale of these live fowl and animals has become more than a matter of cruelty and now takes its place as a means of hindering and interfering with the prosecution of the war effort by wasting needed food and increasing the scarcity of meat."

WEDNESDAY
Richard Greene, who left several million feminine hearts aflutter when he left the American screen for England, returns to his first love in the Warner Bros. English-made picture "Flying Fortress" which tells in graphic and exciting fashion of the bomber ferrying service between America and England and a successful bombing of a Berlin target by a mighty four-motored bomber.

Greene makes his comeback to American audiences and American hearts as the thoroughly spoiled and ill-tempered American of wealth and position who finally sees the necessity of service in the United Nations' war against the Axis and who, in the final reels, gives tremendous proof of his worthiness as a flyer and soldier.

Ruml Tax Foes Still Friends

Rep. Robert L. Doughton (left) (D-N. C.), leader of the opposition to the Ruml pay-as-you-go tax plan, shakes hands with Rep. Frank Carlson (R-Kans.) after the House rejected Carlson's bill incorporating a modified skip-a-year tax plan by a 215 to 192 vote. Doughton, chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, said he did not know whether the pay-as-you-go question "ever will come up again."

NEW POTATO PRICE JUMP

Washington, April 10 (AP)—OPA Friday increased the May and June prices on white potatoes 20 cents per 100 pounds and dry onions 20 cents per 50 pounds over original schedules, saying the action was necessary to spread out shipments during the late season and discourage growers from trying to sell off their crops before May.

Compared with current prices, the increase will be 10 cents per 100 pounds of potatoes or 50 pounds of onions. The increase was authorized on prices charged by country shippers, but wholesalers and jobbers are permitted to pass the extra costs on to consumers.

Original schedules provided that prices had to come down 10 cents per 100 pounds on white potatoes and a similar amount per 50 pounds of dry onions after April. Instead, prices will go up by the same amount, making a net increase of 20 cents.

CIVIL SERVICE EXTENSION

Harrisburg, April 10 (AP)—Third class cities would be required to extend Civil Service provisions to hiring of park guards under a bill passed by the House. Reps. Albert S. Readinger and Vincent Grant (D-Berks).

Media, Pa., April 10 (AP)—Dr. James Pemberton Hutchison, 75, retired Philadelphia surgeon who directed the American hospital at Neuilly, France, during the First World war, died Thursday night after an illness of several months.

G.O.P. PUSHES TAX PROGRAM

Harrisburg, April 10 (AP)—Republican Assembly leaders Friday called for action on the administration tax program as Democratic House members planned renewal of an attack on Governor Martin's fiscal plans.

"We're going to drive the tax bill through Monday night," declared Rep. Edwin Winner (R-Montgomery), sponsor of the measures and chairman of the House Ways and Means committee. Final action of the bills was made a special order of business at 9:30 p. m. Monday in the House.

Rep. Reuben E. Cohen, Democratic floor leader, declared "we shall certainly make vigorous dissent to such an unbalanced and unholly tax payoff to the vested interests."

Savings for Taxpayers
Winner, however, termed the plan "one of the best tax programs ever presented to the Legislature."

The program calls for re-enactment of the emergency cigarette gasoline, corporate net income and liquor taxes and reduction of the gross receipts levy to bring in $154,783,325 in the next biennium.

Elimination of the merchantile state personal property, bank stock and shares and corporate loan levies and reduction of the gross receipts tax will save taxpayers an estimated $44,727,000 in the two year period.

There are about 900 inspectors in England assigned to apprehend black marketeers.

Whatever can be said for gas rationing it seems to be making the open road a closed book.

It takes gasoline to shop around for a new fan belt, so here are a few suggestions that may help you prevent premature belt failure:

Keep the belt pulleys in alignment, and don't allow the belt to become greasy. You will save the belt by observing wartime speed limits, but even if you are careful about the accelerator you may not notice that the belt will wear too rapidly if the generator's mounting bolts are allowed to become loose. Rough pulley flanges have been found to cause a lot of trouble, not to mention use of the wrong type of belt. Take care that the belt does not strike the blade edges.

After Dead Storage

A friend of mine is using good judgment about his car which is just now coming out of hibernation. The first step was to engage a mechanic to come over to the garage, bringing the fully charged battery with him. Then they squirted light engine oil into the spark plug openings, cranking the engine by hand (by putting the car in gear and turning one of the jacked up rear wheels) until the oil was well distributed over the cylinder walls. Fresh gasoline was put into the tank, the fuel pump primed and the carburetor bowl refilled. After installing the cleaned spark plugs the service man checked all ignition parts carefully, paying particular attention to connections. He also worked the choke valve to make sure it was free.

When the battery was installed and the starter motor operated, the engine went off as if it had been running day after day. It would have started easily enough without these little attentions, but not as safely. And isn't the object of care to see that the engine is prevented from self-destruction?

Be On Your Guard

Use of battery "dopes" may seem justified if a trial shows that a seemingly dead battery suddenly perks up and takes a new lease on life. But watch your step.

You can run the battery down using the starter, yet even if it will no longer start the motor it really isn't dead. It is at this point that a "dope" peddler may drop a magic pill into the battery and, after a short wait, try to prove to you, that this accounts for the battery's sudden resumption of activity. It certainly looks as if the dope is doing a job, but actually revival is due to the battery's normal tendency to recuperate with a rest period.

"When the car goes to the shop for alteration of front-end caster and camber be sure to tell the service man if you have found that the steering isn't to your liking. He is slated to adjust for less wear on the front tires but at the same time he can, if asked, adjust for more pleasing steering.

"Adjustments to the knee action type of front end are made by means of adding or removing shims or washers. A sixteenth washer makes a change of one-third of a degree in camber. Naturally the service man will think only in terms of a technically correct adjustment, but if you state your objections to the way the car steers he will probably be able to give you maximum tire protection while at the same time ironing out the steering kink."

If you are looking for some additional ways to save gasoline be sure to check the engine's idling speed. Often this speed is increased beyond possible need in an effort to check stalling that may be eliminated by closer attention to the idling mixture or to ignition. Idling should not be faster than is need to keep the engine from stalling. Anything above this speed, except during the warming up period, is wasteful.

One Way to Save

How do you stop the car when you have a warning that a tire has been punctured?

Some system in coming to a halt is highly desirable if you want to prevent the tire from being further damaged. The most important mistake to avoid is slamming on the brakes. Every foot the car travels after a tire has gone flat is just that much more punishment for it, but tests show that if the car is halted abruptly damage may be accelerated. Should a front tire go flat the car should be stopped with the hand brake which operates either on the propeller shaft or through the rear brakes.

A point that must be kept constantly in mind is that because modern tires are comparatively soft anyway there is more difficulty knowing when a tire is starting to go flat. They may call you fussy, but it pays handsomely to get out and investigate whenever you suspect that something is going wrong with the tires.

Three to Remember

If you are restarting the engine after it has stood for five or ten minutes open the throttle wide with the hand control rather than use the accelerator. This clears the cylinders quicker by allowing the pistons to suck in more air, and avoids slowing down the re-start.

Should you stop the car with the hand brake remember that the stop-light signals will not operate and the driver behind will have no warning.

The further you are along in a line of cars the more space you should allow between the front of your car and the rear of the one ahead. Also try to keep a safe distance from the car behind. The further you are down the line the more abruptly you'll have to stop if the line halts.

It was not so long ago that some owners who had a yen for super-power were enlarging the high-speed jet of the carburetor. Today these same people are missing a good bet by not remembering that as jets age they tend to enlarge. With emphasis today on economy a wise step would be to replace a jet that has seen more than average service. It never was a good idea to enlarge a jet, if the engine's carburetion was well planned by the factory. Naturally today there's no virtue in a jet that has enlarged of its own accord.

Helps You to Save

Even though we have cut down on speed, acceleration and distance the tires are being punished through failure to consider certain engineering changes which place more strain on the car's rubber. In the earlier days, for instance, it was effective enough to have one horsepower of engine output for every 45 pounds of car weight, whereas today's car rates a horsepower for every 27 to 30 pounds. This means that unless power is curbed constantly the normal tendency is for the engine to punish the tires. Another important factor is the reduced diameter of tires because of much smaller wheels. Yesterday's tire turned over fewer times per mile.

Then there is what engineers call "torque." This is the turning effort on the crankshaft, which is finally absorbed by the tires. I need not stress the point that this torque was never at a higher peak.

Motor Trouble Shooting

Q. There is a persistent miss in the engine of my car which is very pronounced when the engine is idling. I've also had a lot of trouble with overheating, but the skip is there whether or not the engine is running at normal temperature. M.L.H.

A. Adding these two conditions together gives us plain evidence that there's a water leak in one of the cylinders, probably due to a bad gasket.

Q. There are no leaks in the braking system of my car yet the brakes always become air bound. After bleeding them they work well for a while; then the trouble returns. This has been going on for two years. Have you any idea what may be wrong? S. A. R.

A. You will find that there is slight leakage in one of the rear brake cylinders when the hand brake is left on and the temperature of the air drops. This allows air to leak into the system. It is particularly prevalent on your make and year of car. Try to park with the car in gear and the hand brake off.

Q. There is always a small puddle of oil under the dust pan of the clutch. Does this indicate that the rear main bearing is leaking oil and that a new retainer, and perhaps a new bearing, should be installed? G. F.

A. Not necessarily. The oil may be leaking from the valve compartment. See if the cover plate is tight. Sometimes the compartment is made to leak by drawing up too much on the cover, causing it to buckle and pull away from the gasket. Of course be sure the gaskets are all right.

Q. The horns on my car are very loud at times, while other times they hardly let out a peep. R. N. N.

A. If they are loud when you speed up the engine then the battery is weak. Otherwise, check for loose or bad connections.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him care of The Gettysburg Times and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for personal reply.
